

主催者あいさつ
Remarks on behalf of co-organizers

浅井伸行 (Nobuyuki Asai)

Joint Learning Initiative on Faith and Local Communities

The JLI is an international collaboration on evidence for faith groups' role and contributions to local community health and wellbeing and ending poverty.

JOIN US NOW

Our work is divided into the following hubs:

REFUGEES

ENDING VIOLENCE AGAINST CHILDREN

MOBILISATION OF LFCS

PEACE & CONFLICT

GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

ANTI-TRAFFICKING &
MODERN SLAVERY

<https://jliflc.com/>

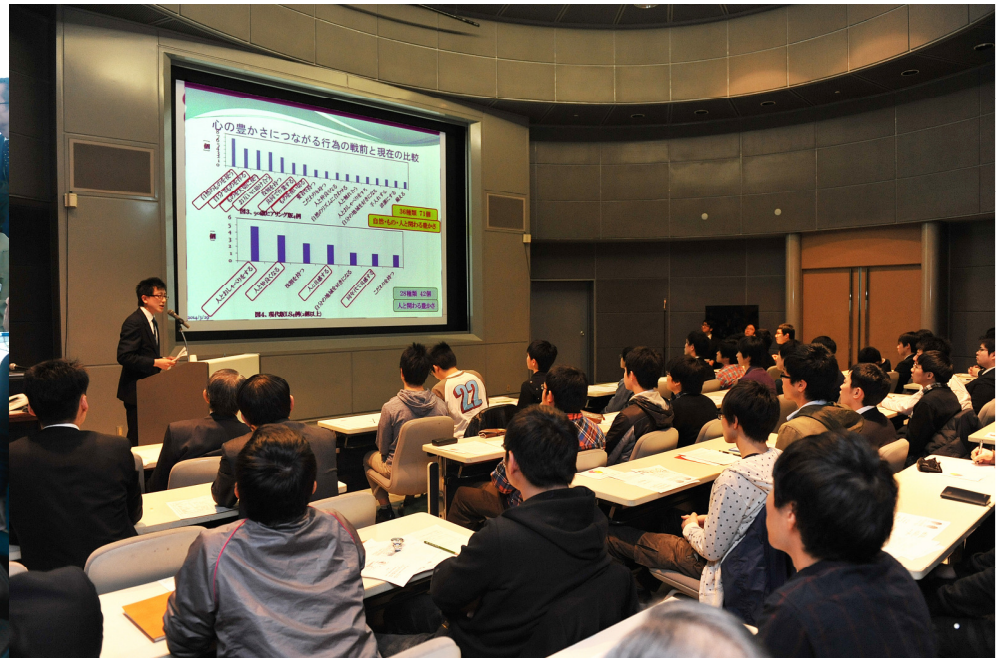

多くの宗教組織が救援活動に貢献

Many faith-based organizations conduct relief activity after disasters.

その他、地域での防災計画策定や 意識啓発の取り組みも

DRR planning in a community and awareness raising activity are promoted as well.

世界人道サミット(2016年5月) World Humanitarian Summit

宗教に着目したセッションが開催。

One session highlighted roles of faith and faith-based organizations.

アジア防災閣僚会議（2016年11月） Asian Ministerial Conference on DRR

国際フォーラム「人道と宗教」(2017年10月)

International Forum on Religion and Humanitarian Affairs

式次第／Program

- 事例報告

仙台イスラム文化センター代表
佐藤登

大正大学BSR推進センター助教
高瀬 顕功

創価学会東北復興プロジェクト
新沼光昭

- Case reports

- Muhammad Noboru Sato
Representative of Islamic
Cultural Centre Sendai (ICCS)

- Dr. Akinori Takase
Research Associate in the Institute of Regional Development,
Buddhist Social Responsibility
Promotion Section, Taisho Univ.

- Mitsuaki Niinuma
Project Manager, Tohoku Recovery
Project, Soka Gakkai

- 基調講演／Keynote lecture

宗教者災害支援連絡会代表・上智大学グリーフケア研究所所長 島菌進

Prof. Susumu Shimazono, Representative of Japan Religion Coordinating Project for Disaster Relief and Director of the Institute of Grief Care, Sophia Univ.

- Q&A